

SCHAFFERNAKER ART

Caring for your giclée, mounting and framing

We highly recommend framing your valuable print to ensure its optimal preservation. Due to the delicate nature of the giclée surface, even minimal handling can potentially harm the paint layer. Textured surfaces are particularly susceptible to "white pops," which occur when abrasion removes a tiny amount of pigment. Any handling outside of the protective sleeve should be carried out by a professional framer.

SCHAFFERNAKER ART

Simplicity usually works best

